

Australian Professional Specialty (E-3) Visas

The E-3 visa classification applies only to nationals of Australia as well as their spouses and children. E-3 principal applicants must be going to the United States solely to work in a specialty occupation. The spouse and children need not be Australian citizens. However, the U.S. does not recognize De Facto relationships for the purposes of immigration, and to qualify as a spouse you will need a marriage certificate.

How to apply for the visa in Malaysia, U.S. Embassy Kuala Lumpur:

Step 1

Once you have determined the correct visa type, you must pay the visa fee. The visa fee page lists the visa types and correlating visa fee in US dollars and native currency.

To pay your visa fee, read the Bank and Payment Options page. This page explains how to make your visa fee payment. You must keep your receipt number to book your visa appointment. Please pay the correct visa fee as Visa Fees are NOT REFUNDABLE.

Step 2

The next step is to complete the DS-160 form. Be sure to read the Guidelines for Completing the DS-160 Form carefully. All information must be correct and accurate. Once the form is submitted, you cannot make any changes. If you need assistance, please consult an immigration lawyer or translator. The call center cannot help you complete your DS-160. You will need your DS-160 number to book your appointment.

Step 3

Now you will need to create a profile in our system. Follow this link

<https://cgifederal.secure.force.com/?language=English&country=Malaysia> and click on "New User".

Complete all fields and create a password. Once you are in the system, you will see your dashboard. Click on "New Application" on the left-hand side menu.

You will need:

- Your passport number
- The MRV fee payment receipt number
- The ten (10) digit barcode number from your DS-160 confirmation page

As you go through the process you will be able to select your visa type, enter personal data, add dependents, select your document delivery location, confirm visa payment and finally, BEFORE you schedule an appointment for your E visa, please email to KLConsular@state.gov to get an appointment slot.
